

Edition 95 - Thursday 9 July 2015 Spotlight on... School's Out - Activities for the Summer Holidays 2015

Description of service: School's Out is a Guide and Directory with lots of exciting activities, places to go and events across the East Riding of Yorkshire. It gives useful information about what's on within the local leisure centres, libraries, museums, countryside events and lots of other venues.

Who can they help? You can find children's activities, including disability specific (for ages 0-19 years) planned for this summer using the School's Out directory.

What happens next? For more events and information on all activities within the Guide please go to the School's Out Directory.

How much does it cost? For further details of activities, events and days out costs, please access the School's Out Directory.

Who do I contact? Visit the School's Out Directory at www.eastriding.gov.uk/schoolsout or call FISH on (01482) 396469.
