

Thorngumbald Pre-School Christmas newsletter

Just a short note to say "thankyou" to Simon, Janet and the team for keepng "the boat afloat" in my absence. Well done everyone and I missed you all!

Arrangements for the next two weeks are as follows :

SINGING AROUND THE CHRISTMAS TREE (inside tree) Friday 11th December _ please have the children at the village hall for 4 pm all children are welcome and as many parents/granparents and extended family are invited to listen and watch the children perform their christmas songs. There will be mulled wine and mince pies (donations of mince pies would be most welcome). We will have our popular bottle tombola and we will be selling reindeer food. The raffle will be drawn at 5pm so make sure you have your tickets as we have some fabulous prizes.

VISIT TO THORNGUMBALD PRIMARY SCHOOL On Monday 14th December the children who normally attend on Mondays and those going to School next September are invited to watch the foundation year perform their Christmas play. We will MEET THE CHILDREN AT THE PRIMARY SCHOOL MAIN ENTRANCE from 9.15 am and we will walk the children back to preschool afterwards (warm coats please).

LAST DAY BEFORE CHRISTMAS - FRIDAY 18TH DECEMBER We will be having party food and games all this week, but on Friday 18th we invite parents, granparents and extended family to come into preschool at 11.30 to watch the children perform their "play" The Enormous Christmas Cracker. If your child is starting school next September and they wouldn't normally attend on a friday, they are welcome to come in that day .

If you want to send Christmas cards to preschool, please just write one card to everyone and we will display it on our notice board.

We return to preschool on TUESDAY 5TH JANUARY 2016
Have a happy and peaceful Christmas and New
